

Wyoming Mustang Challenge

Twenty-five talented horse trainers, 25 wild Mustangs, 90 days of training to compete for $10,000

The Mustang Heritage Foundation is excited to announce the Wyoming Mustang Challenge in conjunction with the Wyoming State Fair August 15-16, 2008 in Douglas, Wyo.

The Challenge begins May 2nd and 3rd when 25 selected trainers take their wild Mustangs home. After working with them for only 90 days, it ends at the Wyoming State Fair in front of over 50,000 spectators. Trainers will compete for $10,000 in cash and prizes and the chance to prove they have what it takes to tame a wild American Legend.

To become one of these Trainers visit www.mustangheritagefoundation.org for the application, rules and regulations.

All applications are due April 1st!
